Annual Report of Committee of Management, 1963

To the Members of the Richmond Football Club,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

Despite an early optimism, which was generally shared by the critics after a promising season in 1962 and a good series of practice games, the team finished in tenth position in 1963.

A critical appraisal of Season 1963 shows that there were several factors which contributed to our inability to improve on the five wins of the previous season—

An expected difficulty in finding satisfactory replacements for Ron Branton, Ted Langridge and Colin Saddington. This problem was not rectified until late in the season.

The alarming sequence of reports and subsequent suspensions which involved several of our best players and caused a consistent loss of team balance.

The failure of several seasoned players to lift their form in order to provide the basic strength which is required to build a team around.

A serious half-back line weakness which was never really settled and therefore robbed us of a first line of offence and defence, a characteristic of this line in modern football. A selective recruiting campaign should solve this problem by next season.

1963 brought with it a certain sadness following the resignation of two of our most popular officials—our President (Maurie Fleming) and our Coach (Des Rowe). Both have given sterling service to the Tigers and they will be sadly missed from their offices. However, both will continue to assist the Club in other ways.

Looking ahead to 1964, our hopes are raised by:—

The acquisition of the great coaching ability and tactical skills of Len Smith, who had remarkable success at Fitzroy. Len is very impressed at the material he will handle at Richmond.

The distinct promise of several of this season's recruits such as Arnold, Brown, Evans, Garland and Warner. We now appear to be progressing in our efforts to overcome our small-man weakness.

The unfulfilled potential of Barrot, Dean, Gahan, Guinane, Hayden, Madigan, Patterson and Williamson, all of whom are just approaching their peak years.

The arrival of a talented array of recruits, who may well prove to be the best the Club has had for many years.

Your Committee of Management feels that it has left no stone unturned in an effort to lay the foundation for a re-emergence of the Yellow and Black as a football power, commencing in 1964.

OUR VICE-REGAL MEMBER

Upon the retirement of Sir Dallas Brooks as Governor of the State, which brought a sad conclusion to our happy association, the Club was honoured when his successor, Sir Rohan Delacombe, accepted the number one membership of the Club.

During his attendance at our game against Carlton, Sir Rohan showed a keen interest in our Club and promises to continue the profound sporting interests of Sir Dallas.

To our Vice-Regal family, we accord a warm welcome to Tigerland and look forward to their visits in the years to come.

OUR PRESIDENT

Much to our regret, Maurie Fleming will retire from the Presidency of the Club as from this Annual Meeting. His decision has been caused by a marked decline in his and Mrs. Fleming's health over the past twelve months.

Being in office during part of this lean period in the Club's history has been a foul blow to someone who has worked so hard to promote success. We are most grateful to Maurie for his devotion to his task during this time because the stability which exists in the administration of the Club is mainly due to his efforts.

Maurie has earned the respect of all who have come into contact with him. His efforts to help others, both at Richmond and away, through his charity work, have been unique and, indeed, have been his undoing, so assiduously has he applied himself that his health has finally given away.

Despite his resignation, Maurie will not be lost to the Club, we are pleased to state. We look forward to him being in close association with his beloved Tigers for many years to come.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES

When one tries to assess the work that Ray Dunn does for Richmond, it is difficult to find where it commences or finishes.

As Chairman of the Executive and Finance Committees, Ray heads the real nerve centre of the Club's administration. His duties as Honorary Solicitor are demanding, dealing as they do with the legal problems of both players and Committee. Add to these onerous duties his unofficial, but very real, position as principal host to everyone officially connected with the Club, and one can readily ascertain the tremendous job which Ray undertakes each year, for his hospitality is a by-word at Richmond.

DELEGATES TO THE V.F.L.

Your Delegates to the V.F.L. General Committee were, once again, Jack Titus and Bill Tymms.

Bill was re-appointed Treasurer of the League and Jack to the Permit and Umpires' Committee. Both have worked hard for your Club during the season and have helped the Committee to maintain a close liaison with the League.

CLUB EXECUTIVE AND FINANCE COMMITTEES

Messrs. Dunn, Boord, Fleming, Garraway, Richmond and Tymms were elected by the General Committee to form the Finance Committee, whilst Chas. Priestley is on the Executive in his position as Social Secretary.

The sound financial position of the Club with its solid assets is a commendation of the work that the Finance Committee has done.

The Executive Committee has helped the Club to maintain a stable administration with sound decisions on the complex problems which beset a football club.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

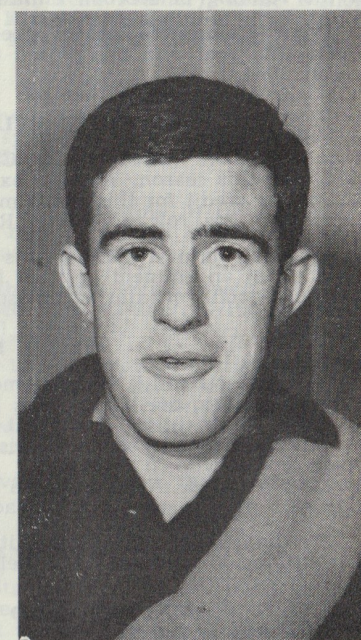

The only changes to the Selection Committee from that of 1962 were that Bill Tymms replaced Chas. Priestley as Chairman and Ron Branton's substitute automatically became Neville Crowe upon his appointment as Captain.

This Committee was continually besought with problems during the season. The uncertain form of some seasoned players, the suspension and injuries to others, brought a very harrowing term for the Selection Committee of 1963.

By firmly infusing young players into the team whenever possible, the Selectors have done your Club a real service, for we are now equipped with a wide array of players who have been blooded in League ranks. This makes the task of producing a good team easy for any Coach when he has experienced players to draw upon.

THE VICE-PRESIDENTS AND COMMITTEEMEN

As there was no election at the Annual Meeting in 1962, the composition of these two groups remains the same. Ray Dunn, Jack Dyer and Ron Garraway are the Vice-Presidents, whilst the Committeemen are Alf Barnett, Martin Bolger, Al Boord, Chas. Callander, Peter Cameron, Bob Dickinson, Basil McCormack, Bill Pitt, Chas. Priestley, Des Rowe, F. Hunter Smith and Jack Titus.

Ray Dunn's work has previously been mentioned, whilst Ron Garraway was active in the administration of the Club and was also a fine host, and Jack Dyer was your greatest asset on many recruiting trips.

Alf Barnett, Chas. Callander, Peter Cameron, Basil McCormack, Bill Pitt and Jack Titus worked in close unison with Chas. Priestley to raise a large sum of money.

Martin Bolger assisted with the administration of the Club.

Al Boord was Employment Officer and was actively engaged in the administration and the recruiting activities of the Club.

Bob Dickinson played a major role in recruiting, both as a scout and in his duties as Asst. Room Manager.

Hunter Smith arranged for extensive alterations in the Club Rooms to be carried out without cost to your Club, and was active in the running of football clinics in country districts.

Your Committee has worked diligently towards lifting the Tigers this year and has placed the Club in a sound position for season 1964.

THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER

The Donors' List of your Club has reached a record figure of £1,650 this season, £200 in excess of 1962 and easily the major part of the credit for this result must go to the fine work of Maurie Fleming in his role as Public Relations Officer.

Maurie's natural flair for this type of work has helped to place the Club in an eminent position in the sporting world and for his continued good work during this season, we are very grateful to him.

COACH FOR 1963

In a season which brought more than the usual share of trials and tribulations, our Coach, Des Rowe, strove desperately to rally his team at all times. The great pity is that he will not be here to reap the principle benefit of his work. Besought by the problems which come with a flourishing business and a growing family, Des has resigned. After eighteen years' active association with the Club as a player, selector and coach, it is indeed sad to see him go.

Fortunately for the Tigers, it is not a complete break as Des will still be around the Club helping wherever he can.

CAPTAIN AND VICE-CAPTAIN

Neville Crowe had a very good playing season as Captain of the Club, culminating in Interstate selection and his winning of the Club's Best and Fairest Player Award. The pity was that his own fine play could not have acted as a greater spur to his team mates.

Fred Swift was forced to struggle for form after injury and suspension, but he finished the season on a high note.

PLAYERS

Thirty-six players were selected during the season and eleven of them were first-year members of the team. The first-year players were of a very high calibre and give us real confidence for the future.

Neville Crowe and Roger Dean were selected in the Interstate team to go on tour to the West. Both acquitted themselves well in such select company and indeed, both appeared to be the victims of Club interests when they were not selected against South Australia.

Neville Crowe, Barry Cameron and Ian Hayden were most capable Players' Representatives to the General Committee.

Serious injury befell Fred Swift, Bill Barrot, Ian Hayden and Roger Dean during the season, but we are pleased to advise that they have all made good recoveries and are expected to play major roles in our drive to higher honours next season.

TRAINING ROOM STAFF

The Training Staff remained the same as in 1962—Irvine Booth (Head Trainer), Alby Keyhoe (Asst. Head Trainer), Ernie Bishop, Keith Cleaver, Kevin Elms, Jim Evans, Lyle Johnson, Ray Julier, Sid McRae, Lyle Richmond and Max Watson once again were a real strength within the Club.

The assistance which these devoted members of the staff rendered to their charges is of immeasurable benefit to your Club. The understanding, advice and sympathy which they extend to new players helps them to settle more readily into their new environment.

The Training Staff plays an important role in the success of the social work around the Club. Ray Julier, Sid McRae and Keith Cleaver being very actively engaged therein.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Irvine Booth, who was such a capable and highly esteemed Head Trainer. With his death, the Tigers have lost a real friend.

Alby Keyhoe was appointed to the position of Head Trainer upon Irvine's illness after many years of valuable work within the Club and he did a very fine job. Sid McRae succeeded Alby as Asst. Head Trainer and proved to be a great success with his care of the young Reserves Players.

Your Club is most appreciative of the work the Trainers have done for Richmond during 1963.

HONORARY DOCTOR AND PHYSIOTHERAPIST

Both Dr. Grogan and John Stanley were re-appointed to their respective positions for 1963. The skill which they apply to their work can be gauged by the great success which was had with the treatment of injuries this year. By the application of the latest methods of treatment, recuperation periods were greatly reduced, for which your Selection Committee was most grateful. Both these members of the staff make great sacrifices to continue their invaluable work for the Club.

Dr. Brian Davie assisted Dr. Grogan on Match Days and proved as capable in his duties off the field as he once was on it.

A sincere vote of thanks is also accorded to Mr. W. G. Doig, Hon. Orthopaedic Surgeon, and to Dr. L. G. Hudson, Hon. Consulting Surgeon, who is also Medical Superintendent of Prince Henry's Hospital. The latter institution has long been of great assistance to the Tigers.

BEST AND FAIREST

Neville Crowe is this season's winner of the Best and Fairest Trophy Award. Neville follows in the footsteps of a long line of star ruckmen who have won this award. His style of play makes him an ornament to the game and his ability to lift his game against top-class opponents makes him a most valuable player for your team.

J. D. LANGDON TROPHY

The winner of this Trophy, awarded annually to the best and fairest player in the Reserves, is Alan Richardson. Alan was a great assistance to his many young team-mates with his strength, fine hand-ball and shepherding, during the season.

J. J. SMITH TROPHY

Following upon his win in the Fourth's Best and Fairest Award in 1962, Kevin Bartlett is the winner of the same award in this season's Under 19 team. Kevin shows great promise for the future and is just 17 years of age.

Back Row (l. to r.): R. Serich, G. Gahan, J. Thompson, L. Behan, M. Patterson, P. Guinane, J. Robertson, I. Hayden, B. Cameron.

Centre: R. Grimmond, W. Barrot, F. Swift, D. Rowe (Coach), N. Crowe (Captain), B. McMillan, R. Dean.

Front: P. Hogan, G. Jacobs, R. Evans, W. Brown, T. Simpson.

FOURTH XVIII. BEST AND FAIREST

Maurie Parker is the winner of this award for season 1963 and shows promise of following in the footsteps of previous winners of this award who have made the grade. Maurie was an outstanding player in a very good team.

BILL COSGROVE MEMORIAL TROPHY

After a fine Amateur career during which he earned Interstate selection, Bill Brown was adjudged our best first-year player in 1963. Bill's pace and tenacity will make him a key player in our rise to the top over the next few seasons.

LIFE MEMBERS

Your Committee has recommended that Bill Tymms and Tom Simpson be appointed to the Life Membership List of the Club.

Bill Tymms has given great service to the Club as Secretary, Treasurer, League Delegate and Selector. At present he is Treasurer of the V.F.L. and earlier played a major role in arranging for the allocation of the Waverley District to your Club.

Tom Simpson has played 124 sterling games during his eight years with the Club. A lion-hearted battler and a great clubman, Tom will be sorely missed if he leaves the Tigers to go coaching this year.

FIVE-YEAR PLAYERS

Eight players have qualified this year for Five-Year Certificates. They are Barry Cameron, Graeme Gahan, Dick Grimmond, Graeme Jacobs, Peter Loughran, Michael Patterson, Alan Richardson and John Thompson. All these players have given great service to the Yellow and Black and your Committee is deeply indebted to them.

RICHMOND CRICKET CLUB

After some early misunderstandings which were grossly over-publicised, your Club finished the season in a spirit of friendly co-operation with the Cricket Club. Both Mr. Cook (President) and our former player, Sid Dockendorff (Secretary) have endeavoured to help us at all times. Messrs. Baragawanath, Cox and Stuckey have assisted us with recruiting during the year and are held in the highest esteem by your Committee, as is Mr. Dave Goodson, the very capable Cricket Club Representative on your Committee.

RICHMOND RESERVE XVIII.

The Reserves, once again, played an important role in the development of young players by permitting them to gain the necessary experience, under League match conditions, but away from its tremendous tempo.

Dick Harris (Coach), Bill Pitt (Manager) and Sid McRae (Head Trainer) have been a great help during the year to promising players such as Gary Arnold, Lance Behan, Rodney Evans and Roger Richardson.

RICHMOND UNDER 19 TEAM

Our Under 19's were again successful in reaching the finals but were unluckily eliminated after a remarkable run of bad luck. However, they pursued their important role of developing promising players at the expense of winning matches.

Ray Jordon (Coach), who, after a fine V.F.A. career, coached the boys for the first time this year, did a great job. Bert Haswell (Manager), Bob Stafford (Property Steward), Roy Weston (Recruiting Officer) and Lyle Richmond (Head Trainer) were of tremendous assistance to these, our players of the future.

RICHMOND FOURTHS

Congratulations to Bill Boromeo (Coach), Ron Cadman (Manager), and John Ryan (Head Trainer) for the job they did in assisting these boys to win the premiership in the M.B.L. A fine team of fanatical players, the boys were a real credit to the Tigers. Several of the lads possess great potential for the future.

PLAYERS' PROVIDENT FUND

A sum of £4 per game was credited in this Fund to each player who played four games or more during the year. As the team performances improve, so will the payments to this Fund be increased.

"COTERIE"

Ray Dunn heads a very active group of business men such as Messrs. Kennedy, Stretton, Forbes, Wiltshire, O'Shea, Graves, Roberts, Cheeseman, Malpas, Garraway and Hunter Smith, who have been of great help to the Club in 1963. They have assisted in securing employment and have donated several new amenities to our Club Rooms.

DONORS TO CLUB'S FUNDS

To the many Donors who are listed at the rear of this report, your Committee offers a vote of thanks for building this Fund to a new record level. Your loyal support in our lean years will soon reap its reward.

DONORS OF TROPHIES TO PLAYERS

The players of the Club were generously supported per medium of their Trophy Fund, during season 1963, and to these donors, as follows, the Club offers a sincere vote of thanks: Dr. Grogan, Messrs. Stretton, McKay, Spooner, Mandie, Thompson, Kennelly, Mahoney, Crean, Richardson, Hutchens, Stanley, Wiltshire and many others.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

A fine group of workers under the capable direction of Chas. Priestley, the Social Secretary, has again worked diligently towards swelling the Club's funds. Their efforts have been highly successful and the entertainments they have organised have been well patronised, winning a host of new friends for the Tigers.

To the Social Committee which, in addition to Chas. Priestley, includes Alf Barnett, Chas. Callander, Peter Cameron, Bill Pitt and Alan Richardson, we owe a vote of thanks, as we do to their assistants Ron Cadman, Ray Julier, Dick Harris, Keith Cleaver, Ern Bishop, Keith Miles, Sid McRae, Alby Keyhoe, Max Watson and Roy Webb.

Arthur Lyster, the very popular Sporting Editor of 3AW, has, as usual, been a tower of strength to the Tigers in the running of our Pleasant Sunday Mornings. His compering is first-class, but we hope that we are not too demanding, Artie!

Our old friends Tex Donohue, Peter Langdon and Max Reddy are always in popular demand at our Socials, as is "the Darling of Richmond," Shirlene Clancy, who is, we are very pleased to say, proving to be a tremendous success on the local television.

Regular Dinner Dances have been held at the King's Hotel where we have been handsomely entertained by our very generous supporter, David Mandie.

Our Annual Cricket Matches against the R.A.A.F. at Laverton and the Richmond Cricket Club at Seaford were well patronised and on their form displayed, some of our players could have even missed their vocation!

Ray Dunn has held several Barbecues and parties at his beautiful home at Windsor which have been a gourmet's delight.

A "Father and Son" night was held during the season and will be the first of many future evenings of this type bringing, as they do, the families of our players closer to the Club.

RECRUITING

Your Committee has embarked on a highly organised recruiting campaign this season and to date it has been very successful. The State has been systematically combed for the type of player the Selectors feel is required to lift the Club back to its former position in the V.F.L.

A busy group of recruiting officers was formed, working under the direction of the Secretary and including former players Jack Dyer, Roy Wright, Alan Cations, Billy Wilson, Les Flintoff, Kevin Callander, Basil McCormack, Ron McDonald, John Nix, Bob Clifford, Ken McGown, Ron Stanborough, Bill McKenzie, Ray Horwood, and Ray Stokes. To this group, the Club is deeply indebted for the time and labour they have devoted to their task. Leo Rush, who has long been a Tiger stalwart in the Ballarat area, has also played an important part in attracting players to Richmond.

Local recruiting agents in country areas have kept a constant vigilance for the development of young players in their districts and have kept a close liaison with the Club. Former players Ron Branton, Jack Eames, Tom Hafey, Jack O'Rourke, Jim Walton and Brian Turner have not forgotten the Club in this regard and they have been strongly supported by Kevin Fennessey, Peter Watt, Alan Thompson (John's father), Tammy Hogan, Stan Aitken, Keith Webster, Jack Oppy, and Frank Maguire.

Our own senior players have co-operated closely with the recruiting of new team-mates and in the running of country coaching clinics at Warrnambool, Wodonga and Shepparton, which have won us many friends in these areas. Bill Barrot, Neville Crowe, Roger Dean, Graeme Gahan, Pat Guinane (a real worker in this field), Brian McMillan, Michael Patterson, John Thompson and Tom Simpson. The friendliness they have shown and the fine impression

APPRECIATION

Success in the administration of a football club is only possible with the assistance of people who help in many different ways. To these people, we are eternally grateful and whilst we have not been the success this season that their efforts on our behalf deserved, we feel that there are brighter days ahead for the Tigers and that their reward is close at hand. To any person who has helped us and is not individually mentioned, we offer a sincere apology and trust that there will be no offence taken. On behalf of the Richmond Football Club we offer our thanks to—

The officials and staff of the V.F.L. whose efficiency and courtesy is greatly appreciated. To Messrs. McCutchan (Secretary) and Hamilton (Asst. Secretary) we are especially indebted.

The Sporting Writers, Radio Commentators and Television Critics, whose work is of ultra-importance to the promotion of our game, as listed below:

"The Age"—Percy Beames, Greg Hobbs, and Ron Carter.

"The Sun"—Kevin Hogan, Rex Pullen, Jack Dunn, Lloyd Brown and Lou Richards (in his many capacities with this organisation).

"The Herald"—Alf Brown, John Craven and Bob Buchanan.

3UZ—George Andrew and Ted Rippon.

3XY—Jack Dyer, Craig Kelly and Doug Elliott.

Local correspondents, Alan McDonald and Gerry O'Callaghan, as well as Michael Lucy, of the "Richmond News," and Bruce Keir of "Leader," who do so much good work locally for us.

The Prince Henry's Hospital, its Medical Superintendent (Dr. Hudson), Manager (Mr. Cross), Col. Wallis and all the members of the medical and nursing staffs, who attended our injured players during the season.

Noel and John O'Brien for their generosity to the Club and for their fine work as caterers to the ground on match days.

Captain Arthur McDonough and John Green for their accurate compilation of statistics and reports on the games.

Des Millman for his assistance with recruiting.

Ron Carson Motors for its best player award of £100 of trophies.

Barry Stanton and Bill Boromeo for their physical training of our players.

Bill Malpas, through his organisation, Kew Dry Cleaners, for the cleaning of Club materials.

Pat Hall, Roy Hall, Norman Eyre, Laurie Sleith, Cyril O'Connor and Lawson Muir, who did a splendid service for the Club as membership ticket sellers.

The following theatre managers who assisted the Club with theatre tickets during 1963: Messrs. Potter (Hoyts), Callaway (Regent), Connolly (Athenaeum), McPhail (Lyceum), Stroud (Forum), Cooper and Stoyles (Tivoli), Budd (Odeon), and Whelan (Esquire).

The Pictorial Editors and their staff for their fine pictorial coverage of the Club for season 1963 in "The Age" (Ron Lovett, Ray Blackburn), "The Sun" (Pedler Palmer), "Herald" (Keith Black, Bernie Bailey and Bob Buchanan).

Alby Wiltshire for printing and many other favours during the year.

Reg and Bill Varley for their donations of sports trousers to the players during the season.

The Committee and members of the Former Players' Association, who have rendered fine support during the season.

Bill Patrick and Doug. Barrow for the provisioning of our Pleasant Sunday Mornings.

Noel Baragawanath, who brought Billy Brown to the Club, and Nelson Cox, our friends from the Cricket Club, for their recruiting work.

Alan Munroe for his assistance in securing trousers for the training staff.

Reg "Bomber" Murray, the former Port Melbourne champion ruckman, who has always been willing to give us expert opinions on local players' ability.

CONGRATULATIONS

On behalf of the Richmond Football Club we extend our congratulations to the following:—

Len Smith upon his appointment as Senior Coach of the Tigers. We hope that Len, with his great football brain, can bring us the success we all yearn for.

Geelong for their winning of this season's premiership. To Jack Jennings (President), Bob Davis (Coach) and Leo O'Brien (Secretary) for a fine effort.

Bobby Skilton for a most popular win in this season's Brownlow Medal—his second—and a great effort.

Neville Crowe and Roger Dean for their selection in the Interstate team.

Gary Williamson and Graeme Gahan upon their recent marriages.

Tom Hafey on his winning the premiership with Shepparton.

Ron Branton for a good, but unlucky, year with Myrtleford.

Ted Langridge upon joining the ranks of the betrothed.

Ray Jordon for retaining his place in the Sheffield Shield Team and making a strong bid for International selection.

SECRETARY'S APPRECIATION

I have been most fortunate during my first term as Secretary of the Club to have received the invaluable assistance of Maurie Fleming, Ray Dunn and Bill Tymms. All of them, but particularly Maurie, have permitted me to constantly call on their vast experience to make my early days in office much easier, for which I owe them a grateful vote of thanks.

This first year of office has been a trying one for me, as it has for everyone connected with the Club, bringing as it did, another poor playing season for our team. However, this disappointment is tempered by the knowledge that brighter days are ahead. The tremendous potential of our players, supplemented by an influx of good recruits, will be exploited to the fullest by the coaching genius of Len Smith.

To the loyal band of supporters who have stuck to the colours through thick and thin, I urge them to take heart from our well-founded expectations for our team in 1964 and to gather behind us in our efforts to lift the Tigers next season. Your loyalty will soon receive its reward.

—Graeme Richmond, Secretary.

J. M. FLEMING, M.B.E., President.

The President and Members, Richmond Football Club, Ladies and Gentlemen,

I report that subject to the following notation I have examined for the year ended 31st October, 1963, the accounts and records of your Club to which the Bank Accounts as set out in the Balance Sheet of the Club at 31st October, 1963, relate.

Records relating to Social Club Accounts have been inspected by me but have not been subject to complete audit due to the fact that receipts of such account cannot be satisfactorily verified.

I report, that subject to the above notation, in my opinion, the Balance Sheet at 31st October, 1963, is properly drawn up and shows a true and fair view of the position of Richmond Football Club at such date according to the information afforded me and as shown by the books and records of the Club covering the transactions of the Bank Accounts as set out in the Balance Sheet and that the Income and Expenditure Account for the year ended 31st October, 1963, is similarly, according to the transactions of such bank accounts and information afforded me, correctly drawn up so as to show a true and fair view of the transactions for the year.

28th November, 1963.

PRESIDENT'S ADDENDUM

It is with a feeling of sincere regret that I submit to our members this last addendum as President of the Tigers. There are so many people who have been extremely kind to me in my long association with the Club, that I feel I must take this opportunity of thanking them most sincerely on behalf of Mrs. Fleming and myself.

To our Deputy President, Mr. Ray Dunn, who is also Chairman of Committees, I owe a special debt of gratitude for his whole-hearted loyalty and co-operation during my term of office, and it is my fervent wish that he will accept the vacancy for the office of President at our first Committee Meeting after the Annual Meeting. Ray will make an excellent President as he has the knowledge and ability to befit the position and has been a life-long supporter of the Club. As a host he is unequalled throughout Victoria, whilst his generosity to the people associated with Richmond and his tact and understanding of football problems will be of great benefit to us for many years. Thank you, Ray, for your friendship and assistance to me, and in particular to the Tigers, for more than 25 years as an official of the Club.

Our Secretary, Graeme Richmond, has fulfilled every wish of our members and has developed within the space of 12 months into one of the most efficient and likeable of the administrators in League football. We are very fortunate to have secured as our Secretary such a personality and untiring worker for Richmond. His perseverance as a recruiter of new players has gained for us many talented lads who will be seen with the Club next year, and he has proved a most worthy opponent for the officials of other clubs in the quest for new players. Graeme has travelled many thousands of miles throughout Victoria in his own time, but has not neglected our own football district and the unallotted areas of Melbourne, where he has made contacts with the clubs which will prove of immense value in our future. Good luck, Graeme, in your future. Richmond by name and by occupation, he cannot but help be a success.

Due to expansion of his business, and to the greater calls on his time with a growing family, our Coach, Des Rowe, resigned after an active association of over 18 years as a Committeeman, Captain, Coach and a Player. Des is still going to be active at Tigerland, as his experience will be invaluable to his successor as Coach, Len Smith. A Farewell Social evening was tendered to Des by the Club and Mr. David Mandie at the King's Hotel, and suitable presentations were made to him and Mrs. Rowe from the Club and the Players. Many expressions of gratitude were made to Des by the speakers on your behalf. We take this opportunity also of thanking Mr. David Mandie for his thought for Des and the Tigers by co-operating so generously in providing this tangible way of expressing our thanks to a splendid Tiger, and to his charming wife, Joan. Good wishes for the future, Des, and to Joan and your two boys, Tigers of the future, we do hope, from every member of our Club.

In Len Smith, we feel we have a man who will carry on the great traditions of the former coaches of our Club. Len has already met the Committee and the majority of the players and he is now engaged on his task of preparing a schedule for the training and the fitness of the lads who will be under his charge. We will have the pleasure of introducing Len to our members at our Annual Meeting. The Smith brothers, Norm at Melbourne, and Len at Fitzroy, have established a reputation for football knowhow which has become almost a legend in their own time. We offer to Len our best wishes for success in his position as our Coach, and we promise him the co-operation of every Tiger member in his efforts to lift the Club to the Finals within the next few years.

I wish to thank all our Players for their devotion to the Tigers during 1963, particularly our Captain, Neville Crowe, who won our Best and Fairest player trophies and thus followed that other fine leader, Ron Branton, who was our best player for the years 1960, 1961 and 1962, and who is now a successful coach at Myrtleford. Neville was ably supported by Vice-Captain Fred Swift, Roger Dean and Tom Simpson, who also acted as leaders during the season. To our staff and trainers, a special vote of thanks is due for their work for the Club, not only in their official positions, but for their help in all social activities organised by Charlie Priestley, Bill Pitt, Charlie Callander, Peter Cameron and Alf Barnett for the funds. We deeply regret the passing of our Head Trainer, the late Irvine Booth, during the year and offer our condolences to his sorrowing widow and family. Alby Keyhoe was our acting Head Trainer and he was ably assisted by Syd McRae and his fellow-trainers.

To Dr. P. L. Grogan, our Medical Officer, and to Mr. John Stanley, Physiotherapist; to Dr. L. C. Hudson, Medical Superintendent of Prince Henry's Hospital, and Dr. Brian Davie, our former star player, we offer our sincere appreciation for their untiring work for the Tigers.

A very special thank-you to our Committeemen in Al Boord, Bob Dickinson, Martin Bolger and Basil McCormack for their help to me in all Club matters.

Our V.F.L. delegates in our Treasurer, Bill Tymms, and Jack Titus ably represented us at the League. With Charlie Priestley, both gentlemen were on the Selection Committee, of which Bill Tymms was Chairman in 1963. To all our other Committeemen I offer a personal tribute and vote of thanks for their assistance to me in handling the affairs of the Club, and I wish them all success in the future. The Committee is losing two great workers in Vice-President Jack Dyer (our famous Captain Blood) and Committeeman Des Rowe. To Jack I convey your appreciation for the 33 years of service he has given to Richmond as a player, Captain-Coach, Vice-President, and in the recruiting field, where his personality has gained us many players, many at present on our full list. Jack will still be helping in every way possible, but his business calls have made it necessary for him to have more time to carry out his obligations in the Press, Radio and TV world. Of Des we have already spoken, but we do know we will still have both gentlemen round the Club for many years, and this will tend to soften the loss of them from our Committee.

Our Social Secretary, Charlie Priestley, received great help from many good friends of the Club in Mr. Max Reddy, Mr. Peter Langdon, Miss Shirlene Clancy, Mr. Arthur Lyster of 3AW, Mr. "Tex" Donohue, Mr. Jack Malcolm, Bill and Roger Harkin and their Band, in providing excellent entertainment in our various fund-raising efforts. To the ladies and gentlemen who assist us by taking our membership tickets to sell to the football public, and to our own band of ticket sellers led by Norman Eyre, Laurie Sleeth, Lawson Muir, Pat Hall, Leo Rush, Les Roberts and Cyril O'Connor, we express our appreciation for the help given us.

1963 saw a record list of donors to our funds in trophies and cash which resulted in £1,661 being contributed. To each and every donor, whether in cash or a trophy to the players' prizes, we convey your sincere thanks. We are particularly proud of the trophies which are presented to our players at the Annual Meeting, and we invite members to inspect them prior to the meeting, and to read in this report the names of the good folk who help the Tigers in this way. Our Coterie, led by Messrs. Ray Dunn, Ron Garraway, Hunter Smith and Albion Wiltshire were again well to the fore in assisting the Club, and in our Committee room have provided a cabinet refrigerator and a hot stove for the use of the officials and players of the Club, plus a number of other appliances which are of benefit in entertaining our visitors. We sincerely thank all the gentlemen associated with the Coterie who are doing so much in providing amenities in our rooms.

Our appreciation is also tendered to our Reserve 18 Manager, Mr. Bill Pitt, and Assistant Coach, Dick Harris, for their attention to their duties, to Messrs. Bert Haswell, Roy Weston, Ray Jordon of the Third 18, and Ron Cadman (Manager) and Bill Boromeo (Coach) of our successful Fourth 18, which won the premiership of the Melbourne Boys' League, duly celebrated with a Premiership Dinner and distribution of trophies at our rooms. Our thanks are also due to Messrs. Jim Cook (President), Noel Baragwanath (Treasurer), Syd Dockendorff (Secretary), Dave Goodson (R.C.C. Delegate) and the ground staff of the Richmond Cricket Club. The Curator, Mr. Ron Cook, is at present ill, and we wish him a speedy and lasting recovery; Acting Curator Mr. Jack Henry has been a great help to us in the absence of Ron. A word of praise also must go to Mr. Joe Hester, Curator of Yarra Park, who is always helpful and obliging to your Committee and officers.

Throughout my life as an official of the Tigers I have received great help from the ladies and gentlemen of the Press, Radio and TV in publicising the matters of interest round the Club, and for their splendid presentation of these items I would like to express my own thanks for the co-operation given me by all. My appreciation is also extended to Messrs. Noel and John O'Brien, our ground caterers, for their help to our activities and for their splendid donation to funds; this also applies to another great friend, Mr. Bill Malpas of Kew Dry Cleaners.

In conclusion, may I again express my thanks to our very loyal members, the many good friends I have made in sport, to our Committee and Players, past and present, for the kindness shown to Mrs. Fleming and myself, and to hope they will continue to give this help to our new President and to our officials to put the Tigers back to the position on the League ladder which we held for so many years in the past. I also hope that 1964 will see the Tigers with a greatly increased membership, and who knows, the League Premiership.

—Maurie Fleming, President.
